

Yankauer Nature Preserve

Insects

Beetles

Cicindelidae
(Cicindela sp?)

Tiger Beetles
Tiger Beetle (¾" long; metallic green)

Lampyridae
? sp.

Lightning Bugs
Firefly (5/8" long, ¼" wide; black with orange markings on sides of head; woodland)

Nymphalidae
Limenitis arthemis astyanax
Phyciodes tharos
(Speyeria sp?)

Butterflies
Brush Foot Butterflies
Red Spotted Purple (work day, 2003)
Pearl Crescent
(Fritillary?: Monarch size but on May 9; orange, seen from a distance)

Papilionidae
Eurytides mar cellus
Papilio polyxenes

Swallowtail
Zebra Swallowtail (several, including mating pair)
Black Swallowtail (female laying eggs on Daucus carota [Queen Anne's Lace])

Pieridae
Colias philodice
Pieris rapae

White and Sulphur Butterflies
Clouded Sulphur
Cabbage White E

Orthopterans

Grasshoppers

Tetrigidae
? sp.

Pygmy Grasshoppers
(Pygmy?) Grasshopper (¼" long plus 1/8" more for wings; brown; adult on May 9)

Scorpion Flies

Panorpidae
(Panorpa sp?)

Scorpion Flies
Scorpion Fly (¾" long; 3 black bands across amber wings, first in center, last at tip)

E An exotic species from outside the United States which has naturalized in Maryland.

Unless noted, insects were observed in spring, 2004, by Joe Metzger.