2022 PROGRAM APPLICATION FORM

The purpose of the Potomac Valley Master Naturalist (PVMN) program is to increase knowledge and appreciation of the natural world, promote effective environmental stewardship, create a pool of knowledgeable volunteers to educate others, and assist in natural history related programs and research. The program enhances people's love of nature with research-based training and community-based volunteer service. To become a certified Master Naturalist, one must attend all 62 hours of Master Naturalist core and elective classes as well as complete 30 hours of volunteer service. Anyone over 16 years of age with an interest in natural history and volunteering is welcome to apply. Tuition is $300. A limited amount of scholarship funds are available. Both the application for enrollment and the scholarship application are to be emailed by January 31st.

The scholarship application is available on the PVMN website at pvmn.org

Each PVMN course is limited to 20 people. Make sure to fill out the application thoroughly and give us a sense of your interest in and commitment to completing the program, your interest in specific areas of natural history, and how you hope to serve the program through volunteer service. Submitting an application does not guarantee your acceptance. Please DO NOT send any money with your application. A member of PVMN will notify you that your application has been received. All applicants will be notified of their status by February 15th, and details about the program will be sent then.

To complete this form, download it to your computer, then rename the file YourLastName_PVMN2022. When you have filled in the form, please SAVE it, then submit your completed application by email to the PVMN Student Coordinator, PVMN@PotomacAudubon.org Please type PVMN Program Application in the email subject line.

Be sure to make and keep a copy for yourself.
